The Gregory P. Barber '69 and Family Head Football Coach

Jeff Hafley was introduced as The Gregory P. Barber '69 and Family Head Coach of the Boston College football program on Dec. 14, 2019.

On the recruiting trail, Hafley and his staff have signed two of the top recruiting classes in school history. The 2021 and 2022 signing classes earned ESPN's best ranking in program history since its rankings began in 2006. BC also earned its best showing in the 247 Sports rankings and was awarded its first Rivals top-30 class since 2004.

In 2022, Hafley and the Eagles picked up the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 2018 and first over an AP-ranked opponent since 2014 when BC upset No. 16 NC State on the road. The season was highlighted by wide receiver Zay Flowers rewriting the Boston College record book. Flowers set BC single-season and career records in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns.

Flowers became the fourth All-American under Hafley as he earned recognition from the AP. He also led the Eagles' seven-player All-ACC contingent as a first-team pick.

One of college football's top defensive minds, Hafley's defense ranked third nationally in passing yards allowed (173.5 per game) in 2021. The Eagles were top-30 nationally in six other defensive categories: total defense, red zone defense, first downs allowed, third down percentage, team passing efficiency, and defensive touchdowns. His disciplined squad led the ACC in fewest penalties and fewest penalty yards.

A total of 12 Eagles were All-ACC selections, led by First Team offensive linemen Zion Johnson and Alec Lindstrom. Johnson was named to seven different All-America teams and was selected 17th overall in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Chargers, becoming the 21st first round pick in school history.

In his first season on the Heights in 2020, Hafley finished with the most wins of any first-year head coach. Hafley helped improve BC's defense 52 spots in the national rankings in total defense as the Eagles allowed 62 fewer yards per game than the previous year, prior to his arrival. Isaiha McDuffie ranked fifth nationally in total tackles while Max Richardson ended the season 11th as Boston College was one of two schools in the entire country with two players finishing in the top 11 in tackles.

Nine Eagles were named All-ACC in 2020. Tight end Hunter Long was named a Second Team All-American by multiple outlets as he led all tight ends nationally in receptions and finished the year second in receptions.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Boston College, Hafley led a dramatic turnaround in leading the defense for Ohio State as the Buckeyes won the 2019 Big Ten Championship and qualified for the College Football Playoff. A finalist for the Frank Broyles Award and the 247 Sports Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Hafley was one of the architects of a Buckeye defense that ranked first nationally in yards per play, second nationally in total defense, third nationally in scoring defense, third nationally in sacks, seventh nationally in rushing defense, second nationally in passing yards allowed and first nationally in red zone defense.

A standout DB coach throughout his career, Hafley's work as the defensive backs coach at Ohio State led to impressive results. The Buckeyes totaled 15 INTs in 2019, tied for ninth nationally, while allowing just 25 pass plays of 20+ yards.

Before arriving at Ohio State, Hafley spent the previous seven seasons in the NFL, the last three with the San Francisco 49ers as defensive backs coach.

Prior to his time with San Francisco, Hafley was the secondary coach for two seasons in Cleveland, the secondary/safeties coach with Tampa Bay in 2013 and a defensive backs assistant with the Buccaneers in 2012.

His coaching career includes 11 seasons in collegiate football before a move to the NFL, and then seven subsequent seasons there. After starting his career as the running backs coach at Worcester (Mass.) Polytechnic Institute, Hafley moved on to the University of Albany for four seasons as defensive assistant and defensive backs coach (2002-05).

He then coached at Pittsburgh for five seasons (2006-10) under the direction of Dave Wannstedt and helped mentor Darrelle Revis into a Jim Thorpe Award finalist in 2006. Hafley was a defensive assistant/cornerbacks coach in 2006-07 and was secondary coach from 2008-10.

One season as the defensive backs coach at Rutgers, working under Greg Schiano, followed his positions at Pittsburgh. The Scarlet Knights ranked ninth nationally in passing defense in his one season there, 2011. Hafley helped develop future NFL standout defensive backs Duron Harmon and Logan Ryan during his time in Piscataway.

Hafley moved on to the NFL following his year at Rutgers and coached two seasons with the Buccaneers, serving as assistant defensive backs coach in 2012 and secondary/safeties coach in 2013. Two seasons with the Cleveland Browns followed under coach Mike Pettine.

Three seasons as defensive backs coach with the San Francisco 49ers (2016-2018) – preceded Hafley's position with the Buckeyes. He worked under Chip Kelly in 2016 and under Kyle Shanahan the final two seasons. In 2018, the 49ers ranked 11th in the NFL in passing defense. They were 14th in 2016 after ranking 27th the year before Hafley arrived.

Hafley and his wife, Gina, have two daughters, Hope and Leah.

» Frank Cavanaugh took over the program in 1919, launching a College Football Hall of Fame career, coaching eight seasons, including an 8-0 season in 1920; a year in which the team adopted the nickname "Eagles" and capped the campaign with a 14-0 victory over rival Holy Cross in front of 40,000 fans at Braves Field.

» Lou Montgomery became the first Black athlete in BC history in 1938. A year later he established the program record for yard per carry at 9.68; a record that still stands.

» Another CFHOF member, Frank Leahy coached from 1939-40. The 1939 Eagles went 9-2 with an appearance in the Cotton Bowl and the 1940 Eagles claimed a national title with an 11-0 record and a Sugar Bowl victory over Tennessee.

» Charlie O'Rourke scored the game-winning touchdown on a 24-yard run on a play installed by Leahy one day prior.

» QB Mike Holovak led BC to the Orange Bowl at the end of the 1942 season for its third bowl game in four years.

» Holovak later returned as head coach from 1951-59 and went 49-29-3. During that time, BC dedicated Alumni Stadium in a game against Navy on Sept. 21, 1957.

» The Joe Yukica era saw the Eagles post a record of 68-37 from 1968-77. His tenure was highlighted by a season-opening win over No. 7 Texas, 14-13, at Alumni Stadium in 1976.

» Jack Bicknell took the reins of the program in 1981, coinciding with the debut of freshman Doug Flutie at quarterback, and returned BC to a bowl game in 1982.

» Flutie guided the Eagles to eight wins in 1982, nine in 1983 and a 10-2 mark in 1984 as he went on to win the Heisman Trophy. The season was highlighted by a victory at Miami on Flutie's Hail Mary TD to Gerard Phelan as time expired. BC capped the season with a Cotton Bowl win over Houston.

» Bicknell spent a decade at the helm of the program and accumulated a 59-55-1 record.

» Tom Coughlin replaced Bicknell in 1991 and went 21-13-1 in his brief tenure; putting together eight- and nine-win seasons in the process, including a 41-39 win at No. 1 Notre Dame on David Gordon's last-second field goal in 1993.

» Tom O'Brien was hired as head coach for the 1997 season and led BC to eight consecutive bowl games beginning in 1999; a streak that would reach 12 for the program.

» O'Brien, the program's winningest coach, went 75-45 with six bowl victories. His 2004 team won a share of the Big East championship and a year later posted a nine-win season in the program's first as a member of the ACC.
